A l'Attention de Lars Schmidt, 17 June 1964

Translation of correspondence from the Lars Schmidt Collection

June 17, 1964

TO THE ATTENTION OF LARS SCHMIDT

Mister Clinton Wilder just called.

He wanted to know on what date and in which theater we will present "VIRGINA WOOLF", and why we didn't take Montparnasse.

I hope I convinced him. In any case, he was eventually very pleased.

He also made note of the names Robinson and Vitold.

I told him that he would find a copy of the adapted play at Richard's [last name illegible] place, and that Zeffirelli was very happy with the adaptation.

If you have anything to say to him, he'll be at the Savoy in London tomorrow and Friday.
